[pg. 308—335]

Jesus for President

Section 4 - end

The authors talked about Conversion, and that is isn't the same as Belief. The Converted become something different, while believers thing about it.

1. What did you think about the rephrasing of Isaiah 2.4, "They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore" for today's understanding?

(See pg 308)

2. What did you think of the Wall Street Jubilee (Lev. 25) story? Is there anything God has given us to model this Kingdom principle? (See pg 310)

3. How do you identify with the statement, "we are a community of struggle"? Notice the diversity within that statement—not one group, over another... (See pg 312)

4. How far are you willing to go in risk, to bring God face-to-face with mammon?

5. Who are our heroes?

6. We need a lot of new stuff, setting us apart as peculiar, and to expose the world to God's new world in us. We need new heroes, music, rituals, liturgy, holidays. What would some of these be here at Still Waters?

(See pgs 318–323)

recapping...

Wow, what a journey... What did you think of this book? Condense its message into a coherent paragraph. How has it changed your understanding of the world we live in physically, and our true world, of God's home? How does this change your interaction with both?
